

THE PUNTIMAL PARODY
(Sung to the tune of Waltzing Matilda)

Page 1

Once some jolly squashmen
Played the game at Boomerang
Drinking their beer 'neath a yum yum tree
Mrs White saw them right
As they sobered up without a fight
Long time ago back in 1963

Find us a builder
Find us a builder
Find us a builder they sang 'neath the tree
As they drank and they drank
And they played a game of squash or two
Find us a builder they sang 'neath the tree

Col Brandon called Crispo
And made him look both high and low
Trimble and Gaskell I'll ask cried he
Honest Joe, Skippy Turner, Terry Watt
And his good La-a-dy
Waited and watched along with Colette Pashley

Find us a builder
Find us a builder
Find us a builder they sang 'neath the tree
As they drank and they drank
And they played a game of squash or two
Find us a builder they sang 'neath the tree

Pi'sces Hogan, McCormick
And dear old Raymond Kett-er-ley
Kept the beer a'flowing for Prickett and Creevey
Graeme Larkin was found
And he started at the cricket ground
Building a club designed by Rod K.C.

We've found a builder
We've found a builder
We've found a builder they sang 'neath the tree
As they drank and they drank
And they played a game of squash or two
We've found a builder they sang 'neath the tree

So the Gabba was born
Kev Mahoney was the licensee
Ray Smith was boss and he smiled with glee
Alan Frost saw the change
Along with Malcolm Sta-a-cy
Hardwick, O'Sullivan and McMillan Lesley

We found the builder
We found the builder
We found the builder they sang 'neath the tree
As they drank and they drank
And they played a game of squash or two
We found the builder they sang 'neath the tree

So the years rolled on by
And new members came in gradually
Casanova was there and Grisaffi brothers three
Robert Ford was so pleased
And so was Frances Walmsley
Twenty one today is the song from me

Glad we found a builder
Glad we found a builder
Glad we found a builder for you and me
As we drink and we drink
And we play a game of squash or two
Glad we found a builder
"Happy Anniversary"
